Federal Member for Cunningham

MEDIA ALERT

Balgownie Public School official unveiling of $150,000 Investing in Our Schools projects

Federal Member for Cunningham, Sharon Bird, will this afternoon unveil a plaque officially opening the Arthur Murray ICT Learning Centre and present Balgownie Public School students with a computer at an official function.

Balgownie Public School received $150,000 in funding to extend the library to accommodate a new information communications and technology (ICT) classroom.

The funding also included construction of covered walkways, installation of air conditioning and connection to utilities.

The new ICT area will be named the 'Arthur Murray ICT Learning Centre' in honour of volunteer, Arthur Murray, who has spent many years working at the school museum.
