454 computers for three local schools

Three local high schools will share in 454 computers as part of the Commonwealth Government's Digital Education revolution, Federal Member for Cunningham, Sharon Bird, said this afternoon.

"The Commonwealth Government is determined to ensure that our local school classrooms are about 21st century learning.

"This latest funding is part of the Commonwealth Government's $2.1 billion National Secondary School Computer Fund program to deliver a computer for every secondary school student in years 9 to 12", Ms Bird said.

Computers will be delivered to the following local high schools:

- Smiths Hill High School                      137 units
- Keira High School                              183 units
- Figtree High School                            234 units.
