Retirement of Jennie George MP

Federal member for Cunningham, Sharon Bird, extended her best wishes to her colleague Jennie George, today, following her announcement that she would be retiring at the next election.

Ms Bird said, “Jennie has been an important asset to our local area and I have greatly valued working with her as an ALP colleague to progress important issues on behalf of our region.

I particularly wish to pay tribute to Jennie’s work in establishing the Apprenticeship Committee that has made a real difference in hundreds of young people’s lives by giving them a start in a trade.

I wish Jennie all the best in her future.”
