Gujarat NRE Minerals finalist in Australian Export Awards

Federal Member for Cunningham, Sharon Bird, today congratulated Gujarat NRE Minerals as a national finalist in the Australian Exports Award to be announced during a National Awards Ceremony in Canberra.

“Gujarat NRI Minerals was among 388 entrants for the Australian Exports Awards.

“The company is among 77 Australian businesses as national finalists for the Australian Exports Awards.

“The winner will be selected as the Prime Minister’s Australian Exporter of the Year.

“Collectively the national finalists generate export earnings of $10 billion during last financial year and employed more than 30,000 people.

“The Australian Exports Awards seek to acknowledge the contribution of exporters across 12 categories.

“I wish Gujarat NRE Minerals every success as one of the national finalists for this prestigious award”, Ms Bird said.
